

The best New York pizza for families

Bring on the cheesy goodness! These delicious New York pizza slices (and pies) are sure to please kiddos of any age.

By Hannah Doolin Posted: Thursday October 27 2016

Juliana's

Swerve around the famously long lines at Grimaldi's in Dumbo and find fine pies just a few feet away. When Patsy Grimaldi sold his namesake joint, he opened Juliana's and started slinging his famous coal-fired pies right next door. The place has a concise menu of blistered Margherita, marinara and white pizzas for diners to top as they please, plus special pies, simply labeled No. 1 through No. 6. Grab counter seats so the bambinos can watch the pizzaiolos at work. 19 Old Fulton St (718-596-6700, julianaspizza.com). Classic pies $18–$21, $2–$6/additional topping, special pies $21–$32.

READ MORE

Brooklyn Heights